“What does our Christ instruct us to do? Meditate on our sins, on death, on hell, on paradise, and on our soul, which is more precious than the entire world. We are to eat and drink moderately; similarly, to clothe ourselves moderately, and to use the remaining time for our soul - to make it a bride for our Christ. And then we can call ourselves human beings and earthly angels. But if we concern ourselves with worldly cares, worrying about our earthly body which tomorrow will be eaten by worms, and do not concern ourselves about our eternal soul, then we can’t be called human beings, but animals. So make your body a servant of the soul, and then you can call Yourselves human beings.” St Kosmas Aitolos
