O All-merciful Lord, grant me the divine gift of holy prayer, flowing from the depth of my heart. Gather together the dispersed thoughts of my mind, that it may always strive towards its Creator and Savior. Destroy the burning arrows of the evil one, which tear me away from You. Quench the flame of the passionate thoughts that devour me during prayer. Cover me with the grace of Your most Holy Spirit, that to the very end of my sinful life I may love You alone with all my heart, all my soul and mind, and all my strength, and in the hour when my soul takes leave of my mortal body, O Sweetest Jesus, take my spirit into Your hands when You come into Your Kingdom. (A Prayer of St. John of Kronstadt)
