Our faith is not about legally following certain rules or checking off certain boxes of religious faithfulness. Our faith is all about a living and dynamic relationship, an adventurous journey into a never-ending union with God. A relationship can't be described by rules or commandments. Sure, certain rules and commandments can help create healthy boundaries in a relationship, but the relationship itself will thrive and grow with something beyond rules – it will thrive with love, devotion, commitment, and passion.—Fr. Luke Veronis
