"Our life is not our own." How many of us like to hear these words of St. Paul? We all are so fiercely independent, and we like to think that we can do whatever we like. Yet, if we are followers of Jesus Christ, we must give up our freedom to Him. We become His! And thus, our lives are not our own. We strive to live our lives to glorify His name, to serve Him by serving and loving the world around us. We lay aside our pride and egocentric desires, and put in their place the supreme prayer, "Lord, Your will be done!" Yes, this is hard to do, and yet, as we give our lives over to Christ, we experience the deepest meaning, joy, peace, and love that life can offer. "Our life is not our own. Lord, we offer freely and joyfully our lives to You!" Fr. Veronis
