In truth thou wast revealed to thy flock as a rule of faith, an image of humility and a teacher of abstinence; thy humility exalted thee; and thy poverty enriched thee.

O Hierarch Father Nicholas, entreat Christ our God// that our souls may be saved!

Temptations come our way every day. Christ Himself being tempted by the devil. The temptation of worldly power and glory. The temptation to fulfill our earthly desires instead of controlling and limiting them. The temptation to test God, to doubt Him, or to place yourself in the place of God. Many temptations attack us every day. Saint Peter says the devil is like a ravenous lion looking to devour us. Be on guard at all times. Pray without ceasing. Invite God's Spirit to dwell in you continuously so that there will be no room for Satan and his deceptive lies to lead you astray.—Fr. Luke Veronis
