When the women disciples of the Lord learned from the angel the joyous message of Thy Resurrection, they cast away the ancestral curse and elatedly told the apostles:

“Death is overthrown! Christ God is risen, granting the world great mercy!”

Serving Christ will always be a service that entails acceptance of dangers, sufferings, and humiliations, the experience of human powerlessness and at the same time of the power of God. Only those who are prepared to accept, with courage and trust in Christ, sacrifice, tribulation, contradiction, and rejection for His sake can withstand. How often we forget or consciously ignore St. Paul's words: 'We have the privilege of not only knowing Christ, but of suffering for Him as well' (Philippians 1:18). This privilege to suffer for Christ is at the heart of the Gospel. (Archbishop Anastasios of Albania)
