Saint Paul reminds us that "We who are strong ought to put up with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves." We are called to help others in their weaknesses and build them up, not tear them down. Mother Gavrilia says something similar, "When you think about criticizing someone or judging them, ask God to take hold of you at that hour and remind you to love that person as He loves you. Then God will help you see your own condition and understand His mercy. If Christ were visible in our midst, could you criticize another?"—Fr. Luke Veronis
